

Social Media Terms of Use

County of Minburn No. 27

The County of Minburn uses social media to share information about County programs, services and decisions and to hear from residents. We welcome your comments and questions, including criticism of the County, Council or County decisions. Do not use social media to report an emergency – please call 911.

Monitoring

Our accounts are monitored during regular office hours, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday to Friday, excluding statutory holidays.

What we may hide or remove. We may hide or remove content that:

- is abusive, threatening, discriminatory, obscene or defamatory;
- contains personal attacks, or the personal information of another person;
- is spam or commercial advertising;
- promotes a candidate or election campaign; or
- is false or misleading information likely to cause public harm.

We apply these rules the same way to everyone. We do not remove content only because it criticizes the County, Council or County decisions.

Repeated violations

If someone repeatedly posts content that breaks these terms, we may, as a last resort, restrict them from interacting with our accounts for a set period.

Records and privacy

Comments, messages and other content posted to our accounts, including content we hide or remove, are County records. They are managed under the Access to Information Act and the Protection of Privacy Act and may be disclosed under those Acts. Please do not post personal information about yourself or others. Information you post on these accounts is collected under the authority of section 4(c) of the Protection of Privacy Act to communicate with residents and respond to questions.
